STAY LAW.

AN ORDINANCE TO CHANGE THE JURISDICTION OF THE COURTS, AND THE RULES OF PLEADING THEREIN.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the people of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by authority of the same, That the jurisdiction of the several Courts of the State, and of Justices of the Peace, except as provided in this ordinance, shall be as in the year 1860.

SEC. 2. Be it further ordained, That the several Courts of Law, at the Spring Terms thereof only, unless otherwise herein provided, shall have exclusive original jurisdiction to hear, try and determine all actions of debt, covenant, assumpsit or account, where the sum, due or owing, amounts (principal and interest) to sixty dollars or more.

SEC. 3. Be it further ordained, That all writs in debt, covenant, assumpsit or account shall be returnable to Spring Term and be served at least thirty days [Sundays included] before the return day. Within the first three days of the return term, should the defendant pay to the plaintiff, or into Court to his use, one-tenth of the debt or demand (principal and interest) and all costs to that time, he shall be allowed until next Spring Term to plead. At the said Spring Term, should the defendant pay to the plaintiff, or into Court to his use, one-fifth of the residue of the debt or demand and cost, he shall be allowed until the succeeding Spring Term to plead. At the said Spring Term, should the defendant pay to the plaintiff, or into Court to his use, one-half of the residue of the debt or demand, he shall be allowed until the succeeding Spring Term to plead. At the said Spring Term the plaintiff shall have judgment for the residue of his debt or demand: Provided, however, That the plaintiff, if required, shall file his debt or demand in writing, and if the defendant shall make oath that the whole or any part thereof is not justly due, or that he has a counter claim, all of which shall be particularly set forth by affidavit, then the defendant shall only pay the instalment required, of what he admits to be due, and the Court shall order a jury, at the same or some subsequent term, to try the matters in dispute between the parties, and at the next Spring Term the defendant shall be allowed time to plead only upon payment of one-fifth of the residue of the admitted amount, and whatever the jury may find him indebted over and above the same: Provided, further, That should the defendant fail to pay the first or any subsequent instalment, then and in that case the plaintiff shall be entitled to proceed to judgment and execution according to the course of the Court in 1860.

SEC. 4. Be it further ordained, That all suits in actions of debt, covenant, assumpsit or account issued to Fall Term of the Superior Courts, shall be returned by the Sheriffs to Spring Term, 1867, and all actions of debt, covenant, assumpsit or account, now pending in the Superior Court, shall be continued to Spring Term, and it the defendant has entered his pleas, he shall be allowed to withdraw the same, and take the benefits of section 3 of this ordinance.

SEC. 5. Be it further ordained, That dormant judgments shall only be revived by actions of debt, and every scire facias to revive a judgment shall be dismissed on motion: Provided, That those now issued shall be dismissed at the cost of the debtor.

SEC. 6. Be it further ordained, That the Clerks of the several County Courts shall transfer all actions of debt, covenant, assumpsit or account, now pending in their respective Courts, to the Spring Term, 1867, of the Superior Courts, and the said Spring Term shall be deemed the return term thereof and the said actions shall stand as if originally instituted in that Court.

SEC. 7. Be it further ordained, That the Clerks of the several County Courts, if requested so to do by the plaintiffs, sixty days before the Spring Terms, 1867, of the Superior Courts, shall transmit to said Spring Terms certified copies of the judgments in actions of debt, covenants, assumpsit or account entered on the dockets of their Courts, together with the writs of fieri facias or venditioni exponas issued thereon, and shall issue notices thereof to the defendants, which notices shall be served at least thirty days before said Superior Courts. At the Spring Terms aforesaid, the Courts shall on motion order the said judgments to be entered on the minute dockets, provided the same were not dormant when transmitted from the County Courts, and on such entries being made, the said judgments shall be taken and held to be judgments of the Superior Courts and writs of fieri facias and venditioni exponas may issue, as provided in section 10 of this ordinance, following the writs transmitted from the County Courts and preserving the liens, as if issued by the same Court.

SEC. 8. Be it further ordained, That the Sheriff in each county shall return all writs of fieri facias and venditioni exponas issued from the County Court on judgment in actions of debt, covenant, assumpsit or account to the next term of said Court, without sale; and shall return all writs of fi fa or venditioni exponas issued on similar judgments from the Superior Court or decrees of the Court of Equity on money demanded to Spring Term, 1867, without sale.

SEC. 9. Be it further ordained, That no writs of fi fa or venditioni exponas on judgments in actions of debt, covenants, assumpsit or account shall hereafter issue from the County Courts, nor shall said writs on such judgments issue from or to the Fall Terms of the Superior Courts, except in cases where defendant fails to comply with the provisions of this ordinance, and it is directed that plaintiff may proceed according to the regular course of the Court.

SEC. 10. Be it further ordained, That no writs of fi fa or venditioni exponas on judgments in actions of debt, covenant, assumpsit or account, or decrees for money demands in Equity shall issue from Spring Term, 1867, without permission of Court, and should the defendant within the first three days pay one-tenth of the judgment or decree and costs then the writ shall be credited one-tenth, issued and immediately returned "Indulged:" Provided, No plaintiff shall be allowed to take the said one-tenth without first entering his assent to said return: And provided further, That such assent and return shall not prejudice any lien the plaintiff may then have by virtue of said fi fa or venditioni exponas: Provided further, That at Spring Term, 1868, the defendant upon paying one-fifth of the residue of the judgment or decree and costs shall have indulgence in like manner.

SEC. 11. Be it further ordained, That upon all warrants before Justices of the Peace for a demand (principal and interest) of $25 or less, should the defendant pay one-fifth to the plaintiff or to the collecting officer for his use, he shall be allowed six months to plead, and at the expiration of said six months, should he pay as aforesaid one-half of the residue, he shall be allowed six more to plead, and at the expiration of said six months plaintiff shall have judgment and execution for the residue. Upon demands (principal and interest) of less than $60 and more than $25, the defendant shall be allowed twelve months instead of six, on each payment: Provided, That the plaintiff shall file his claim in writing, and if the defendant, on oath, shall deny the same, or present a counter claim, the Justice shall proceed to try the same. Upon judgment the defendant shall be allowed a stay of execution for six or twelve months, as the case may be, upon paying one-fifth, and afterwards one-half, as before judgment: Provided, That all Justices' judgments for $60 or more, not dormant, shall be transmitted, together with the warrant or other papers, by the Justice to Spring Term, 1867, of the Superior Court, and notice thereof shall be given the defendant at least twenty days before Court; and in the Superior Court the same proceedings shall be had as on judgments from the County Court, according to Section 7 of this ordinance.

SEC. 12. Be it further ordained, That all writs of scire facias to subject bail, issued from the Superior or County Courts upon judgments in actions of debt, covenant, assumpsit or account, shall be returned to Spring Term, 1867 of the Superior Courts, and should the tenth, fifth and half of the judgments be paid from Spring Term to Spring Term, time to plead shall be allowed, according to section 3 of this ordinance.

SEC. 13. Be it further ordained, That this ordinance shall not apply to judgments for costs only.

SEC. 14. Be it further ordained, That this ordinance shall not apply to the remedies for the collection of Town, County or State Revenue.

SEC. 15. Be it further ordained, That this ordinance shall not apply to proceedings by attachment, unless the defendant replevy and give bail, and then and in that case the proceedings shall be subject to the provisions of this ordinance as if commenced by writ or warrant.

SEC. 16. Be it further ordained, That where the action is by or on behalf of intants, still minors at the return term, and the interest exceeds one-tenth, the first payment shall be increased to the amount of interest due, not to exceed one-fifth of the whole debt.

SEC. 17. Be it further ordained, That the provisions of this ordinance shall not be construed to extend to any debts or demands contracted, or penalties incurred, since the first day of May, A. D., 1865, or which may be hereafter be contracted or incurred, but that the remedies for the recovery of the same shall be in all respects similar to the remedies for the recovery of debts which were in force in the year 1860.

SEC. 18. Be it further ordained, That any creditor, attempted to be defrauded as set forth in sec. 1, chap. 50, Revised Code, may, without obtaining judgment at law, file his bill in Equity, and said Court is hereby authorized and empowered to direct proper issues to be made up and tried, and to make such orders and decrees as to right and justice may appertain; and said proceedings shall not affect the creditor's right to proceed at the same time at law; and any surety, before paying the debt of his principal thus attempting to defraud his creditors, may institute proceedings in equity, in like manner, to the end that he may obtain relief.

SEC. 19. Be it further ordained, That every executor or administrator shall file, on oath, at the termination of two years from the time of his qualification, a full statement of his receipts and disbursements, and the condition of the assets, particularly setting out all money collected and how disbursed, and on motion the Court may allow further time to settle the estate, from year to year, not exceeding three years: Provided, That on each motion to extend the time, a supplemental statement shall be filed: Provided, That any creditor or next of kin may oppose said motion, and if the statement is not full and fair, file interrogatories which the executors or administrators shall answer, before his motion for time is allowed: Provided further, That the Court may also extend the time for pleading: Provided further, That all executors or administrators, who have heretofore qualified, shall be allowed until the County Court next after the first of January, 1867, to file his statement.

SEC. 20. Be it further ordained, That all acts, and parts of acts, suspending the operation of the statutes of limitation in the Revised Code, are hereby repealed, except as herein provided: Provided, That the time elapsed since the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, barring actions or suits, or presuming the satisfaction or abandonment of rights shall not be counted: And provided further, That nothing contained in this ordinance, or in the acts hereby repealed, shall be so construed as to prevent judgments from becoming dormant.

SEC. 21. Be it further ordained, That any Sheriff, Clerk, or other officer, failing to execute any of the provisions of this ordinance, when the execution thereof devolves on him, or issuing, receiving, or executing any process whatever contrary to the provisions of this ordinance, shall be subject to a penalty of five hundred dollars, to be recovered by rule of Court, as penalties, and fines were recovered in 1860.

SEC. 22. Be it further ordained, That in all actions brought by any bank or other corporation having exercised banking privileges, or by any assignee or endorsee, or officer of said bank or corporation, it shall and may be lawful for the defendant to set off by plea or on trial any note or certificate of deposit issued by said bank or its branches, or other corporations, whether the same has been presented for payment or not, any law or usage to the contrary notwithstanding, but said plea of set off, or set off on trial, shall not avail to carry costs against the plaintiff, unless there has been a tender of such payment before suit brought: Provided, That should the defendant require the debt to be scaled according to the scale of depreciation of Confederate currency, then and in that case the said notes or certificates of deposit shall not be a set off in any manner.

SEC. 23. Be it further ordained, That "An Act to change the jurisdiction of the Courts and the rules of pleading," ratified the 11th day of September, 1861; an act entitled "An Act to restore the Courts and for other purposes," ratified the 14th December, 1863; also an act entitled "An act to change the jurisdiction of the Courts and the rules of pleading therein," ratified the 10th of March, A. D., 1866, and all laws in conflict with this ordinance, be and the same are hereby repealed.

SEC. 24. Be it further ordained, That the General Assembly shall have no power to repeal, alter or modify this ordinance until the third Monday of November, 1868, and this ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its ratification.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. Editors.

Monday Evening, June 25, 1866.

FOR GOVERNOR,

JONATHAN WORTH,

OF RANDOLPH.

The Convention.

This body adjourned sine die this morning, after a session of 33 days. We congratulate the people of the State upon the event.

Probably no deliberative assemblage ever convened in this State, whose proceedings were regarded with so little of interest by the public at large as those of the Convention just adjourned. Whether this was attributable to the popular conviction that the powers of the Convention were usurped, that its legitimate functions were ended, and that whatever it might do was of uncertain validity, or whatever may have been the cause, certain it is that the Convention occupied a lonely and isolated position with reference to the people of the State. They cared but little for it, and thought nothing of it, except as they may have apprehended mischievous and unwarranted legislation from its questionable temper, and except as they knew that it was uselessly absorbing the scanty means in the State Treasury.

And yet it was a body possessed of far more than ordinary aggregate ability and respectability of character. It embraced, indeed, some of the first talent of the State. Much of its action was important and wise, and it has proposed some judicious and salutary reforms. But no amount of wisdom or respectability were sufficient to affect or change the popular indifference, that was entertained concerning it.—When changed at all, it was converted, rather, into popular odium. And there is really ground to fear that much of its really practical and needed legislation will fail of acceptance or endorsement at the hands of the people, because of the general distrust of its powers and the indifference towards its proceedings that have been felt.

In one respect, certainly,—perhaps in many,—the Convention entirely failed to represent the sentiments of the people of the State. It did not thoroughly reflect their conservative, manly views as to our Federal relations. It was elected under peculiar circumstances, and at a peculiar time, and had not kept pace with the progress of popular sentiment in the right direction. In fewer and simpler words, there was, we fear, a tendency to Radicalism in the body, which will never have an opportunity of exhibition in any similar conclave hereafter.

We repeat our congratulations that this Convention has adjourned. For what it has done well, however it may have acted without authority, let it have due credit. Above all, let it have credit for what it has omitted to do. Let it pass into history, which, perhaps, will do it, and the actors in it, better justice than we, who are its cotemporaries, can.

Persecution of Union Men.

We published, a few issues back, an article from the Ashville News, "putting the shoe upon the right foot" in the matter of the alleged persecution of Union men in the West, so pitcously harped upon by Mr. Caldwell, of Burke, in the Convention, and echoed in other quarters. The following from the last Winston Sentinel is to the point:

"In the county of Forsythe, and we blush to say it, and would fain hope that the declaration was false, many of the best men of the country have complained, from time to time, since the re-establishment of civil authority, that the jury box has been overhauled, and that every man, who was known to have gone into the war willingly, has been cast overboard as unworthy of confidence. We trust that this enormity has not been practiced, but the fact that every jury, since the surrender, has been composed of one and the same class of politicians, is a striking corroborating circumstance that even the blind could not fail to discover. In the trial of causes, in the examination of witnesses, and in arguments before jurors, men's politics have been alluded to. It is now currently spoken of throughout the county, that at the last term of the Court here, jurymen, impannelled and sworn to try according to law and evidence, were heard to declare that no matter what the evidence might be, a verdict should not be given against a Union man for a damned secessionist. The character and reputation of the county, if indeed demoralization is not to be the order of the day, demands that this rumor be silenced, and the broad charge that none but a certain class of politicians sit in the jury box in Forsythe county should be refuted."

The President's late Message.

A special telegram from Washington states that the late message from the President to Congress fell like a thunder bolt on that body. It is regarded as the boldest step yet taken by President Johnson, and as precluding the possibility of a reconciliation between him and the Radicals.

When the war terminated the South unmurmuringly submitted to every demand imposed upon her. All the State Legislatures unhesitatingly responded to every exaction that had been made upon them. The spirit of submission, and almost of servility, which our people exhibited, instead of inspiring the Radicals with magnanimity, made them more cruel and vindictive. Grant the degrading concessions which the Radicals now demand, and they will soon invent new expedients for insult and humiliation.

The St. Mary's (Maryland) Gazette states that the Hon. Benjamin G. Harris will probably decline to be a candidate for re-election to the next Congress.

Mr. A. J. Davis, the writer on spiritualism, says that "the spiritual world is made from life-points, sent out from the chemical coalition of the planets." We are glad the question is settled.

The Editor of the New York Independent, who is in the councils of the Radicals, writes as follows from Washington respecting their designs in future:

"The supplemental legislation which is to follow this amendment has not been fully determined. A chance yet remains that it may hinge on equal suffrage. For instance, suppose a bill should pass declaring that none of the Southern constitutions shall be held legal until ratification by the people, without distinction of color; and declaring, also, that until these States shall present to Congress such constitutions so ratified no admission shall be granted. Without some such precautionary measure, the new constitutional amendment will prove useful for the negro's civil rights, but useless for his political.—Other Congressmen hold that the terms of admission should be declared by a concurrent resolution, instead of a law. Others, still, hold that the present amendment should not be followed by any legislation whatever during the present session—leaving to a more radical Congress to enact a more radical plan. The debate goes busily on, and perhaps in the multitude of counsellors there will be wisdom."

Is it not clear from this that these people do not want reconstruction at all? The amendments are a delusion and a snare. If accepted by the Southern States they will be no nearer admission than before. Why are not the Radicals honest and willing to confess that their ultimate design is to vitally change our form of government? A republic which permanently disfranchises one-third of its inhabitants is a mockery, and cannot last.

They are to have called sessions of Northern Legislatures to ratify the constitutional amendments proposed by Congress. This grave act is to be done precipitately, and without consultation with the people. The Legislatures of the North, as now composed, are Radical. They were elected without any reference to these proposed amendments. They are to pass upon a subject in regard to which they have no commission from the people, and have no knowledge of the popular wishes; indeed, this precipitate action is taken in order to escape a popular judgment. It is taken in the apprehension that the people are opposed to these measures; and for the purpose of preventing their defeat if submitted to the popular judgment.

Supreme Court of N. C.—A correspondent of the Petersburg Index, writing from this City, says:

"I heard, to day, of an interesting case argued before the Supreme Court now in session, at its present term. The case involves the right of freedmen to a legacy left them under a will, at a time while they were yet slaves. The law of North Carolina declared all emancipation of slaves by will to be "null and void." By the general law, or by the "Common Law," of the slave-holding States, a slave was incapable of taking, by bequest or otherwise, or of making any contract of any sort. In the case in question the slaves were emancipated by the will of a man who died in 1864, and a legacy was also left them thereby. They have sued the Executor for the legacy. It was, I understand, contended in the argument in behalf of the freedmen, that they were in fact free in 1864, by the force and effect of President Lincoln's emancipation proclamation, which went into opperation on January 1st, 1863. Hon. Asa Biggs, and Mr. Peebles, of Northampton, argued the case for the freedmen, and Mr. Conigland, of Halifax, for the Executor. No intimation whatever has been given as to what will be the decision of the Court. It is very probable that Chief Justice Chase will have a say in it before it is ended."

The Assassination Witnesses---A Batch of Perjured Scoundrels.

The Judiciary Committee of the House are reported to be embarrassed by the bad way in which the witnesses as to Mr. Davis' connection with the assassination plot behave themselves. We do not see the reason for embarrassment at all. Certainly the Committee can have no desire to fix so monstrous a crime upon the chief "traitor." On the contrary, they must feel relieved to know that there is no evidence of any such crime, and that Judge Holt's contrary opinion rested wholly upon unreliable testimony.

The case appears much worse now for the witnesses than it did when first brought before the Committee. Campbell, who swore hardest to statements implicating Davis, has since taken back and denied all that he had at first asserted, and now says that the entire testimony was deliberately gotten up in order to secure a share of the rewards for the arrest of Davis and the other conspirators. Connover, one of Baker's detectives, who was an important witness in the assassination trials, finding that Campbell's confessions were putting him in a bad position, obtained permission, about three weeks ago, to proceed to New York and hunt up other witnesses, who, as he said, would sustain his testimony and disprove the final testimony of Campbell.

A Deputy Marshal went to New York with Connover, to keep watch of him, but Connover soon gave him the slip, and he has not since been seen. It is not likely that he will ever appear again voluntarily, and his escape goes to confirm Campbell's disclosures. There is now little room to doubt, what has always been suspected by those who carefully read the assassination trials, that the principal witnesses for the Government were perjured scoundrels.—Perhaps none of the convictions procured by their testimony were undeserved, but if the culprits were allowed a legal trial, instead of trial by court-martial, the country would not have been troubled by the unpleasant suspicion that wrong many have been done in the name of justice. Better the escape of some of the guilty even than a suspicion like this.—Springfield Rep.

An unsigned handbill has been circulated at Norfolk, Virginia, by the radicals, calling all the citizens of that place that are in favor of the Constitutional amendment lately passed by Congress, to meet in convention and nominate candidates for municipal offices in Norfolk.

Federal disbursing officers are directed henceforward to deposit with Treasurers or Assistant Treasurers of the United States, the moneys entrusted to them for disbursement, and to draw them from the same only as funds are required for payments to be made in pursuance of law.

The finest residence in the South is that of W. B. Johnson, of Macon, Ga., modeled after the plans of European palaces. In order not to know how much it cost, he destroyed the bills as fast as they were paid.

The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, by a majority of its Judges, has decided that no Judge of election has the right to refuse the vote of a deserter, unless the latter has been tried and convicted of the offence. A similar decision was recently rendered in Ohio.

Resources of North Carolina.

The United States Commissioner of Immigration having recently addressed a letter to Gov. Worth as to the resources and capabilities of the State, the Governor prepared and transmitted the information contained in the subjoined communication.

Its publication has been immediately induced by a letter from the President of the American Emigrant and Homestead Company, New York, which will be found below, and which explains itself:

American Emigrant Aid and Homestead Co.,
62 Broad & 21 New Street,
New York, June 8th., 1866.

To His Excellency, the Governor of North Carolina:

Sir:—Reports have been received by this Company from Europe, that efforts are made there to dissuade the Europeans from immigrating and settling in the Southern States, by circulating statements that the European settlers in the Southern States are treated inhumanely; which can be refuted successfully only, by referring the Europeans to the statutory laws of the respective Southern States, relating to the mode of acquiring property, and to the civil and political rights and privileges secured to the new settlers or foreigners locating therein. To enable the Company to do this task effectively, you are most respectfully requested to furnish it with copies of such laws of your State, or to refer it to such other authentic collections thereof, as are actually in existence and in force in your State.

A statistical information of your State resources, of the climate of its various localities, and of agricultural adaptedness of their soil, would be very desirable also; for the misrepresentations referred to extend even to these objects.

As the object of this request is to obtain from you a weapon to enable this Company to defend the interests of your State and of its landholders, it is expected that this liberty will be excused.

Herewith you will be pleased to find our charter organization, and a newspaper containing the expression of our determination to aid the South in obtaining immigrants.

I have the honor to be,
Very Respectfully,
Your Excellency's obd't serv't,
P. C. WRIGHT,
President.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
Executive Department,
Raleigh, June 18th. 1866.

P. C. Wright, Esq.
President Am. E. A. & H. Company.

Sir:—In response to your letter of the 8th. instant, I write you substantially the same facts contained in a letter, of this date, to the United States Commissioner of Immigration at Washington.

Geographically, North Carolina is situated half way between New York and the Gulf of Mexico, being included between the parallels of 34½ degrees and 36½ degrees. It extends from the Atlantic coast five hundred miles westward stretching more than one hundred miles beyond the Blue Ridge Mountains, and contains an area of 50,000 square miles, having therefore the same extent as the State of New York. This territory divides itself naturally into three well marked sections: On the West, the mountainous plateau, having an elevation of 2500 feet above the sea, and being traversed by several chains of mountains, many of whose peaks attain an elevation of nearly 7000 feet. On the east lies a low plain, nearly level, partly alluvial and partly sandy, extending about 150 miles from the coast; and between these two spreads the hill country, whose elevation rises gradually from 200 or 300 feet, on the east, to 1200 feet at the base of the mountains.

The eastern section is mostly covered with pines (Pinus australis and P. taeda), the middle and western with vast forests of oaks (of many species) interspersed with the poplar, hickory, walnut, maple, &c. Seven large rivers, with their numerous tributaries, traverse the State, furnishing unlimited water power as they flow down from the mountains through the middle section; and as they move, with a moderate current, across the champagne country, on the east, into the chain of sounds which skirt the coast, they furnish, with these, an aggregate of 900 miles of inland navigation, which might be doubled by carrying westward the system of slack water improvements already commenced. With these navigable waters is interlaced the Railroad system of the State, amounting to 998 miles completed, and 400 more in progress, which, with about 350 miles of plank-roads and turnpikes, brings the sea coast into ready communication with every part of the State.

is very various; alluvial and peaty accumulations abound near the coast and along the rivers, while in the middle and western regions the soil is mainly of granitic origin, and represents every grade of sandy and clayey loam of various fertility.

THE CLIMATE

has also a wide range, being tempered on the seaboard to something like the mildness of that of the Gulf States, while in the mountain region it approaches the rigor of New York. In the middle section, which constitutes the larger part of the State, and represents the average climate, the mean annual temperature is 60 deg. (Fahrenheit)—the mean Summer temperature 75 deg., mean Winter 43 deg., extreme Summer (diurnal) 89 degrees, average absolute maximum 99 degrees, extreme Winter (diurnal) 20 degrees, average absolute minimum 12 deg. The annual fall of rain is 45 inches. The number of cloudy days in the year is 130; rainy days 60.

THE VEGETABLE PRODUCTIONS

are very various. The most important are wheat, corn, oats, rye, potatoes, sweet potatoes, peas, rice, cotton, tobacco, turpentine, grapes and fruits. Wheat and corn are produced with facility and abundance in all parts; rye, oats potatoes flourish in the middle and Western regions; rice, sweet potatoes and peas in the Eastern; tobacco in the middle; cotton in the Southern counties of the middle and in the Eastern section; turpentine and pine lumber are peculiar to the East. The fruits most extensively and largely cultivated are the apple, peach, pear and cherry, represented by numerous varieties. No part of the Continent is better adapted to these than the middle and Western regions. The principal grasses are the orchard, herd's, timothy and blue, to which must be added clover and lucerne. All these flourish in the middle and Western regions, and some of them grow wild; hence, stock raising is easy and profitable. The stock chiefly raised are horses, mules, cows sheep and hogs. The grapes usually cultivated, besides foreign varieties, are the Scuppernong, Catawba, Lincoln and Isabella, all natives of the State, the first three being excellent wine grapes. The Scuppernong is peculiar to the Eastern section. The following abstract, from the United States Census report, for 1860, will best show the productions and capabilities of the State:

Live Stock	3,326,000,	Annual product.
Wheat	4,700,000	bushels. "
Corn	30,000,000	" "
Oats	2,800,000	" "
Rye	437,000	" "
Peas	1,900,000	" "
Potatoes (bush.)	830.000	Annual product.
Sweet Potatoes, "	6,140.000	"
Cotton	58.000.000	"
Tobacco	32,900.000	pounds "
Rice	7.600.000	" "
Wool	883.000	" "
Honey	2.055.000	" "
Turpentine	1.000.000	barrels "

THE MANUFACTURES

are chiefly of cotton, wool, spirits of turpentine, lumber, iron and paper.

The amount invested in the manufacture of cotton is 2.250.000 dollars; lumber $1.000.000; turpentine $2.000.000; iron $500.000; wool $350.000.

FISHERIES

abound in the sounds and rivers of the eastern counties. The species of fish mostly taken are the herring, shad, blue fish, mullet, and rock.—The number of barrels annually packed for market is about 100.000, on the waters of Albemarle Sound. Considerable quantities are packed at other points.

MINERALS.

The most important of these are coal, iron, gold, copper, silver, lead, plumbago, limestone, marble, agolmatolite, soap stone, manganese, whet-stones, grind-stones, roofing-slates, porcelain clay and fire clay. The coal is bituminous, and exists in two beds, situated respectively 100 and 200 miles from the coast, on Cape Fear River and Dan River. It is abundant, accessible, and of good quality. Iron ore, of excellent quality, abounds in all parts of the State, the principal seat of its manufacture being on the Cape Fear, Catawba and Yadkin rivers.—Gold is found in almost all parts of the State; especially in the middle region; the annual product, for many years, has been $250,000. Copper mines abound in the middle, northern and western counties. Plumbago is found in great abundance near the capital, and again in the western region; marble in the middle and western; and marl everywhere in the eastern sections.

A chain of silver and lead mines (containing gold also,) traverses the central portion of the State.

THE POPULATION

in 1860 was 992,622, of which one-third are colored, 3,298 are of foreign bith. One-tenth of the population live in towns and cities.

LAND.

According to the census of 1860, there were 6,500,000 acres of improved land, being about one-fifth of the area of the State. The price at which these lands are held ranges from about 3 dollars to 100 dollars per acre; the average would be about 87½.

The only qualification necessary to enable a foreigner to own land, is that he take the oath of allegiance to the State, or have become a citizen of the United States.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS

were maintained in the State, by the means of the Literary Fund, which amounted to $2,500,000 in 1860. About half of the fund has been swept away by the war; and the system of District schools, which had brought a rudimentary edueation within the reach of all, free of cost, has been entirely prostrated for the present, but will doubtless be revived in a few years.

The State may be reached directly from Europe through any of her ports,—Wilmington, Beaufort or Norfolk, from which railroads penetrate every part of the State. From New York the distance by railroad or steamer is about 20 hours. The number of newspapers published in the State is about 70; all in the English language.

The above statistics have been prepared, with much care, by the State Geologist, Prof. W. C. Kerr, whose information and research will vouch for their entire reliability.

You state that "reports have been received by your Company from Europe, that efforts are made there to dissuade the Europeans from immigrating and settling in the Southern States, by circulating statements that the European settlers in the Southern States are treated inhumanely," &c.

Nothing could be more untounded than such a report, so far as this State is concerned.—Citizens of foreign birth have the same protection of person and property under the laws of North Carolina as her native citizens—and where they are as industrious and honest, they are as thrifty and as highly esteemed—many such occupying positions the most honorable and influential. To foreign settlers, of honest, energetic character, the State extends a cordial welcome; and, I can assure you, when such come, instead of being "treated inhumanely," they will be offered the same rights and privileges, and the same support and countenance, enjoyed by our native citizens.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
JONATHAN WORTH,
Governor of N. C.

Report of the Minority of the Reconstruction Committee.

The following is an abstract of the report of the minority of the Reconstruction Committee, submitted to the House of Representatives on Tuesday and ordered to be printed. It is signed by Senator Reverdy Johnson and Representatives Grider, of Kentucky, and Rogers, of New Jersey:

The minority proceed first to consider what was the effect of the late insurrection upon the relations of the States where it prevailed to the general government, and of the people collectively and individually of such States. They contend that the insurrection never legally dissolved the connection between these States and the government. In its nature the government is formed of States possessing equal rights and privileges and powers. States unequal are not known to the constitution. In its original formation perfect equality was secured. The equality of rights was the condition of the original thirteen States before the government was formed. In every State admitted since the constitution was adopted each State is declared "to be one of the United States, on an equal footing of all the original States in all respects whatever."

The minority argued at length the status of a State and maintained that when a State is once in the Union she must abide by it forever. She can never withdraw or be expelled from it. The majority concede this by submitting a constitutional amendment to these Southern States, the same as to other States. A different doctrine would lead to a dissolution of the Union. The constitution does not give the power to subjugate the State, but to suppress the insurrection within the State, and thereby preserve the State. The power is conservative. It is to protect the State and not to destroy it. In referring to the local governments of the South and the charge that the President illegally created them, the minority say that, conceding for the argument's sake that this was so, does it not follow that Congress is equally unauthorized to interfere? Congress may admit new States, but a State once admitted ceases to be in its control and can never again be brought within it. Whatever changes her people may make in their constitution, Congress has nothing to do with it.

In alluding to representation, the minority say that the representatives of the States not in insurrection, if the others were represented, would exceed in the House (under the present appointment) by a majority of seventy-two votes and have decided preponderance in the Senate. What danger to the Government, then, can possibly arise from Southern representation? Are the present Senators and Representatives fearful of themselves? Are they apprehensive that they might be lost to distinction? The idea that the country is to be kept in turmoil, States to be reduced to bondage, and their rights under the Constitution denied and the rights of their citizens disregarded with a view to the continuance in power of a mere political party, cannot for a moment be entertained without imputing gross dishonesty of purpose and gross dereliction of duty to those who entertain it. The minority claim that there is nothing in the evidence taken to show that this denial of representation should be made. They have complied with every requirement of the President, and repudiated the rebel debt. The proposed constitutional amendment is looked upon by the minority as impolitic.

The amendments suggested have no connection with each other, and each ought to have been submitted as a separate article. In discussing the legal status of the Rebel State Governments of the South, the minority add, in conclusion, that the majority report states that "they do not for a moment impute to President Johnson any design to extend executive power, but cheerfully concede to him the most patriotic motive." And we cannot forbear to say, in concluding, on that point, that he sins against light and closes his eyes to the course of the President during the rebellion, who ventures to impeach his patriotism. His life was constantly in peril, and he clung to the Union and discharged all the obligations it imposed upon him even the closer because of the peril. And now that he has escaped unharmed, and by the confidence of the people has had devolved upon him the executive functions of the government, to charge him with disloyalty is either a folly or a slander, "folly in the fool who believes it, slander in the man of sense, if any such there be, who utters it."

Advice to the South.—The Memphis Avalanche is of the opinion that the report of the Reconstruction Committee and their final action may not be without beneficial influence upon the people of the South. It advises the Southern people to accept with resignation and dignity the position of exclusion from an equal share in the Government to which they are consigned; to pay their taxes and fulfil faithfully all their obligations to the Government, and henceforth to trouble themselves no farther about politics, but devote themselves exclusively to industrial pursuits. In furtherance of this it earnestly recommends the South to raise its own corn, wheat and other provisions; to manufacture, by the aid of artisan emigrants from the North, for itself; to be a self-supporting people in all respects, and to raise no more cotton than is necessary to supply its own wants. The Avalanche appeals with great earnestness to the Southern people in support of each of these recommendations, and its views are likely to attract a good deal of attention. The capacity of the Southern States for producing all the cereals is unbounded. This is a kind of reconstruction which no one can prevent; and, now that the purpose of Congress is manifest to exclude that section from representation, it will be more manly and self-respecting to devote their attention to productive industry than to continue vainly knocking for admission at the doors of the National Legislature.

Several meteoric stones fell at Nashville on the 12th. near the railroad depot. They were of a blueish color, and were quite hot when first discovered. Geologists say that nothing similar has been found in any part of the world. Two specimens have been forwarded east for further examination.

THE SENTINEL.

Monday Evening, June 25, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—M. McMahon offers for sale a store-house, &c., in Scotland Neck, Halifax county.

See business notice of the National Bank and John G. Williams & Co.

THE STAY LAW.—We re-publish, upon our first page, this evening, the Stay Law, as it passed the Convention. We are induced to do this, as the demand for the Sentinel containing it has been so great.

SOUTHERN EXPRESS TELEGRAPH CO.—We are requested to state that this Company have reduced their rates one half between Weldon and Columbia, S. C.

WE ARE requested to state that return tickets over the R. & G. R. Road will be issued to all persons desiring to attend the Commencement exercises of the Female Institute at Kittrell's, on Thursday next.

THE BUREAU IN NEWBERN.—Mr. John O'Connor, of Newbern, has had a bout with the Bureau, in which he has come out second best up to this time, but he intends to carry the case before the President. He was summoned before the Bureau on the charge of maltreating a negro woman. He denied the jurisdiction of the Bureau, but he was fined. The Magistrates' Court undertook to pass upon his case; whereupon the Bureau threatened to arrest the justices, who, however, proceeded to try the case despite the threats. Mr. O'Connor's counsel then produced before the Bureau Court a certified copy of the records of the Special Magistrates' Court in O'Connor's case, and showed that his client was now in the hands of the civil authorities to answer the charge against him, and claimed his discharge from military custody. The Bureau refused to look at the documents or to recognize the action of the court, and demanded the fine of fifty dollars, which O'Connor paid.

The case now goes up to Gov. Worth to be, by him, laid before the President.

We trust that the President will interpose to stop this interference of the military with the civil authorities. The point has been settled by Judge Nelson, of the Supreme Court, that all such proceedings are unlawful and unconstitutional.

THE BRIDGE over the Catawba river, on the Charlotte and Columbia Railroad, has been repaired with memorial iron. The order for the chains, and other iron-work necessary to its reconstruction, was given to Messrs. Anderson & Co., of the Tredegar Works in Richmond, and was executed with material purchased at the sale of the scrap iron of the Confederate States Armory, and consisting of musket and rifle barrels, bayonets, &c., captured or gathered on many a battle-field, and deposited there for repair, but destroyed by the fire.

SUICIDE.—We are pained to learn, from the Weldon State, that Mr. Joseph Pool, of Pasquotank county, put an end to his existence on the 14th. inst., in Elizabeth City, in said county, by cutting his throat in a horrible manner with a razor. Mr. Pool was far advanced in life, and had been for some time in precarious health, but from all appearances his mind was vigorous and rational, and the sudden termination of his life, by his own hand, has caused great excitement and gloom in the sphere of his large acquaintance.

THE LADIES MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION of Wilson County was organized on Wednesday last.—The following are the officers of the Association:

Mrs. Mary B. Tredwell, President.
Mrs. R. H. Blount, Vice President.
Miss Nannie Hancock, Secretary.
Mrs. W. D. Rountree, Treasurer.

TROUBLE IN YANCEY.—Since our last issue, two men have been killed in Yancey county.—A party from the direction of Iron Mountain made a descent upon the settlement and stole a horse from Calvin Garland. He followed them to the Mountain where he was murdered by them. The man who is reported to have killed Garland is named Burchfield. He had concealed himself behind a blind, and shot Garland as he approached.

The other man killed was named Pressley, who, it appears, went to the house of the man who killed him and abused the women. The owner of the house came in afterwards, learned the facts, followed and shot him.—Asheville News.

PRINCELY DISCOURTESY.—The Round Table tells some good anecdotes of its own, and quotes from Pall Mall Gazette to show that the Prince of Wales is becoming highly unpopular with men of weight and influence in England, by gross neglect of the courtesies expected from one in his exalted station. When in the chair he seems to have a way of pushing through the business in hand in a manner so unappreciative of the intrinsic merits of what is transpiring, as to wound the sensibilities of the wise and great, and even to excite no good feelings in masses of refined audiences. At a late meeting, Dean Stanley, who accompanied the Prince on his Eastern tour, and has been generally supposed to stand remarkably high in his esteem, as well as that of all the literary men of the age, was reading a paper of great labor and original research on the history of Westminster Abbey The reading of it overran by a few pages the allotted hour; Dean Stanley paused, the custom being for the Prince in such cases to give the signal for him to proceed. But the Prince did not, and would not, and the audience had to disperse without the conclusion of a much wished for lecture.

The English presses are generally silent on such subjects, even though they may be generally talked about and understood in good society; so that they must have proceeded very far when the Pall Mall Gazette ventures to criticise his course as it does.

Brigham Young is sixty-five years old, and much married.

STATE CONVENTION.

ADJOURNED SESSION.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

SATURDAY, June 23d., 1866.

Without further material amendment the Constitution passed its third reading, as follows:

AYES.—Messrs. Adams, Alexander, Baines, Baker, Berry, Boyden, Bradley, Bryan, Burgin, Buxton, Bynum, Caldwell, of Burke, Caldwell, of Guilford, Dick, Dickey, Faulkner, Furches, Gahagan, Garland, Garrett, Godwin, Harris, of Guilford, Harris, of Rutherford, Harrison, Haynes, Henry, Hodge, Jackson, Johnston, Jones, of Henderson, Jones, of Rowan, Joyce, King, Logan, Love, of Jackson, McCauley, McCorkle, McKay, of Harnett, McDonald, of Chatham, McDonald, of Moore, McIvor, McLaughlin, McRae, Moore, of Wake, Murphy, Norfleet, Patterson, Phillips, Polk, Rush, Settle, Sloan, Smith, of Anson, Smith, of Wilkes, Starbuck, Stephenson, Stewart, Swan, Walkup, Ward, Williams, Wilson and Wright.—62.

NAYS.—Messrs. Allen, Bagley, Barrow, Bingham, Brickell, Conigland, Eaton, Faircloth, Ferebee, Gilliam, Grissom, Howard, Jarvis, Joyner, Lyon, Manly, McKoy, of Sampson, McGehee, N. A. McLean, Nat. McLean, Odom, Pearsall, Perkins, Person, Richardson, Smith, of Johnson, Spencer, of Hyde, Warren, Winburne and Winston.—30.

The following ordinances and resolutions passed their several readings under a suspension of the rules:

An ordinance in relation to the deposit and publication of the ordinances and resolutions of the Convention.

An ordinance for the relief of Thomas D. Fleury.

An ordinance in reference to the payment of a portion of the public taxes into the treasury of the State.

An ordinance submitting to the qualified voters of the State the ratification or rejection of the Constitution adopted by the Convention.

A resolution in favor of R. S. Tucker.

A resolution in reference to payment of interest on the publict debt of the State.

The ordinance to authorize the several counties of the State to borrow money was discussed at considerable length. Amendments were offered by Messrs. Odom and Grissom to preclude the county courts from paying, or levying taxes to pay debts, directly or indirectly incurred in aid of the rebellion.

Mr. Howard offered an amendment to these providing that the ordinance should not be construed to prevent any county from paying indebtedness incurred for the support of the indigent families of soldiers.

On motion of Mr. Harris, of Rutherford, the ordinance was finally laid on the table.

Mr. Warren being in the chair, Mr. Ferebee introduced a resolution of thanks to the President of the Convention for the able, impartial and dignified manner in which he had presided over its deliberations.

This resolution was unanimosly adopted, and the President, resuming the chair, acknowledged the compliment in a few felicitous remarks, expressing, in conclusion, the regret he felt at the approaching severance of associations of so pleasant a character, and wishing the delegates a safe and happy return to their respective homes.

The Convention then adjourned until 7 o'clock A. M., on Monday.

MONDAY, June 25.

The Convention was called to order at seven o'clock, A. M.

The following ordinances and resolutions passed their several readings under a suspension of the rules, viz:

An ordinance to empower the justices of the several counties to borrow money in certain cases, and for other purposes.

An ordinance with regard to the incorporation of the town of Mocksville, in Davie county.

A resolution to send copies of certain ordinances to the President of the United States.

A resolution to supply delegates of the Convention with copies of the ordinances and journals.

A resolution concerning Confederate securities, and State securities, issued during the war, now in the Treasury.

The first ordinance was amended by the insertion of provisoes, to the effect, that the counties shall not pay more than eight per cent on the moneys borrowed—that the bonds shall bear but eight per cent interest, and further that they shall not be sold at less than par value. This ordinance applies only to the counties of Polk, Rutherford, Cleaveland, Davidson, Henderson, Wilkes, Cherokee, Clay, New Hanover and Martin.

The Constitution of North Carolina and other ordinances were reported correctly enroled, and were ratified.

At 1 o'clock P. M., pursuant to order, the Convention adjourned sine die.

THE COMING COTTON CROP.—The accounts of this crop are conflicting, and from the main localities quite discouraging. A great portion of the country South of the Red River has been reported under water. The Rich Valley of the Yazoo has also been the scene of great floods of late.

The levees on the Mississippi and other rivers named above having been neglected during the war, and injured in the prosecution of hostilities, were in poor condition to withstand the high waters of this season.

It is stated "that not less than ten millions of acres of the richest portions of the Southwest, capable of producing 400 lbs. to the acre, have been so flooded that they, for this year, can barely subsist their scattered, wasted inhabitants.

Recent advices from New Orleans, however, state that the crop prospects are improving, and the overflowed land is being rapidly replanted.

Favorable accounts also reach us from Georgia and other cotton regions east of the Mississippi, where every effort is being made to seed as large a crop as possible.

The accounts published at the close of last season greatly underestimated the amount of cotton in the South, and we trust the statements of disaster this season will prove equally untrue. The amount reported in New Orleans not long since was 124,000 bales, but a carctul and accurate account made 164,000 bales. There is considerable of the crops of previous years still to come forward.—Rich. Exam.

JONATHAN WORTH FOR GOVERNOR.—In another column we give the card of the above named gentleman, announcing himself as a candidate for Governor at the election to be held on the third Thursday in October next. We have seen nothing in Mr. Worth's official course since he took the gubernatorial chair in January last, to prevent us from giving him as cordial and warm a support as we did last fall. The short term that he has discharged the duties of the office has been one of the most momentous and trying in the history of the State, and we feel proud to say that his effort to retrieve the fortunes of the State and her position before the country are truly appreciated by all right minded and conservative men outside of the State's limits, and are looked upon with gratification by his fellow-citizens at home; and we have no doubt he will receive a larger vote at their hands at the coming election in approval of his course than he did last fall.—Wadesboro Argus.

GOV. WORTH'S CIRCULAR.—Upon the first page of this paper may be seen the circular of his Excellency Gov. Worth, announcing that that gentleman is again a candidate for re-election for the office of Chief Magistrate. When he was last before the people for that high position he now fills so creditably to himself and beneficially to the people, Forsythe County, indeed, we might say, this entire Congressional district, supported him almost unanimously. And since, in the management of the Executive Department of the State, his conduct has been so wise and exemplary, there can be no reason to suppose that he will not again be triumphantly declared the choice of the people. As the election is yet, under the recent ordinance of the convention, so far in the distance, we deem it not essential at this time to say more than to express our unqualified approval of his course.—Winston Sentinel.

Two additional cases of Cholera are reported at New York, neither of which, however, terminated fatally. At Elizabeth, New Jersey, there was great excitement in regard to the disease, five distinct cases of cholera having occurred within twenty-four hours.

France—Mexican Affairs.

WASHINGTON, June, 24.

A letter from a distinguished source in Paris communicates the subjoined to the Mexican Legation: The steamer which is about to leave St. Nazaire for Mexico will carry, I am assured, an autograph from Napoleon to Maximilian, which demands that the Mexican Custom-houses shall be placed under French administration as a guarantee for the Mexican loan, converted into three per cents, and in default of the acceptance of this proposition by the Mexican Government, our troops will be immediately re-called. On the contrary, if the arrangement is effected, the terms announced for the departure of the French troops will be maintained.

The Recent Fenian Troubles in Canada.

OTAWA, C. W., June 23.

In the Canadian Parliament Mr. Galt moved for the indemnification to the government, for expenses incurred during the recent Fenian troubles. Several members of the government party advocated the move, when Mr. Chambers, of Brookville, obtained the floor, and spoke against it. He said that Canada could not support troops enough to resist the United States. A thousand Fenians were a very different matter from thirty-six millions of Americans. He also called for an investigation of the conduct of some of the commanders of the Provincial troops during the troubles, and denounced the management of the volunteers as a blunder.—Mr. Chambers was continually interrupted and hissed,—the uproar becoming so great at times as to drown his remarks. He was replied to by Mr. D. Arcy McGee, and the motion of Mr. Galt was adopted.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

IS a concentrated extract of the choice root, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effectual antidote for diseases. Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. Such a remedy is surely wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove, as this has, of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:

Scrotula, Scrofulous Swellings and Sores, Skin Diseases, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Eruptions, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, &c.

Syphilis or Venereal Disease is expelled from the system by the prolonged use of this Sarsaparilla, and the patient is left in comparative health.

Female Diseases are caused by Scrofula in the blood and are often soon cured by this Extract of Sarsaparilla.

Do not discard this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be Sarsaparilla, while it was not. When you have used Ayer's—then, and not till then, will you know the virtues of Sarsaparilla. For minute particulars of the diseases it cures, we refer you to Ayer's American Almanac, which the agents below named will furnish gratis to all who call for it.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS, for the cure of Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Heartburn arising from Disordered Stomach, Pain or Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, and for a Dinner Pill.

They are sugar coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best Aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

A BOON TO THE SICK.

AND

THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD.

DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS AND SALVE.

These Life-giving remedies are now given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these

LIFE-GIVING PILLS!

Have been used with the greatest success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure. They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering and re-invigorate the failing system. To the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be

A VERY FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH,

For in every case they add new life and vitality, and restore the waning energies to their pristine state.—To the young and middle-aged they will prove most invaluable, as a timely, specific, and sterling medicine. Here is a dream realized, that Ponce-de-Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to vigor and make youth ever

An Eternal Spring!

It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show in one glorious fact, that magic that made it fair.

THESE FAMOUS REMEDIES

Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back and hold aloof, diseases that might triumph over the aged and the young. Let none hesitate then, but seize the favorable opportunity the offers. When taken as prescribed—

FOR BILLIOUS DISORDERS

Nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills. Their almost magic influence is felt at once, and the usual concomitants of this most distressing disease are removed. These remedies are made from the purest

VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS.

They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect in prescribed dose to the youngest babe.

FOR CUTANEOUS DISORDERS

And all eruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil!

DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS.

Invariably cure the following Diseases.

Asthma,
Bowel Complaints,
Coughs,
Colds,
Chest Diseases,
Costiveness,
Dyspepsia,
Diarrhœa,
Dropsy,
Debility,
Female Complaints, Fever and Ague
Headache,
Indigestion,
Influenza,

WHO WANTS A PIANO?

SEVERAL Patrons of the Concord Female College have requested my aid in securing good for their use. This has induced me to make arrangements with some of the best manufacturers, which enable me to furnish instruments of the first class at reduced prices. I can save each purchaser from $40 to $100. Price lists of the manufacturers will be sent to those who desire them, to aid them in making selections.

When selections shall have been made the money can be sent to me, at my expense, by the Southern Express, and a Piano will be shipped to the Depot the purchaser may designate. Each Piano sold will be fully warranted. Address me at Statesville, N. C.

A CARD.

Because of affliction and age which renders me incapable of continuing business, I now retire from the Book trade, leaving my entire stock and interest in the hands of Messrs. Branson and Farrer—except the publication of the "N. C. Almanac," which, I trust will be received with the same favor as heretofore.

In retiring, I return my sincere thanks for the very liberal patronage which the public has chosen to bestow upon me during the last half century—the length of time in which I have been engaged in the book trade in this State—and cheerfully recommend to my old friends and patrons, my successors, Messrs. Branson & Farrer, by whom, I am sure they will be satisfactorily accommodated.

Mr. H. D. Coley, so well known to the Book trade and to the public, and so long engaged in business with me will be retained as an assistant in business with Messrs. Branson & Farrer. He invites his old friends to call upon him.

COTTON GINS,

MANUFACTURED BY

W. G. CLEMONS, BROWN & CO.,

COLUMBUS, GA.

WE have received the manufacture of Cotton Gins in this city, and will be prepared to fill orders by 1st June next. As we shall not be, as heretofore, represented by traveling agents, parties wishing our Gins, will confer a favor by sending in their orders at an early day. As owing to the demand, we shall be unable to keep a stock in the hands of our local agents, as it was our practice before the war. All business transactions being now reduced to cash, our sales will be made on the basis of ready pay.

Our Gins are too well known to require any special notice or commendation; we believe they are unrivalled in the chief points of excellence which go to make up a superior machine, namely: Speed light draught and good sample.

Our DOUBLE CYLINDER GINS will be found superior to the single cylinder, when parties have steam or good water power, to give them the necessary speed. In all cases when this can be done, we recommend them in preference to the single cylinder. If, however, indifferent or insufficient power is used, they will not do as well as the single Gin.

Messrs. DeROSSET & CO., Wilmington, N. C., are our general agents for the State of North Carolina.
